In Memoriam: Deloris Maurer

Deloris Maurer lived most of her life in the Clarksville, Illinois area. She greatly supported the Clark County Fair.

For many years, one could find Deloris near or around the Arts Building. She would help judge all of the beautiful quilts, radiant paintings, and delicious pies, etc. She would remain in the Arts Building many hours to make sure everyone's project stayed safe.

Deloris made sure the Fair was fair! She was there to help her fair community in every way that was needed.

The Fair was bred into Deloris. Her parents, Oscar and Lucille Kirchner were Fair Boosters and held the same box seats for over 50 years. Oscar also sat on the Fair Board.

Deloris and her husband Bob were dedicated 4-H leaders throughout the years. They raised their four children George, Noble, Roy, and Sara in the 4-H Club.

The kids have many memories of growing up in their warm and cozy home on the hill. There would be fresh vegetables on the table in the Summer and bounties of vegetables canned from their garden for the Winter.

Deloris would sew mounds of fabric scraps into beautiful works of art. They became quilts, every stitch done with love, to keep her family warm. This all made her more than qualified to be a judge at the Clark County Fair.

Deloris Maurer.

Deloris was one woman who would have survived living in the 1800s and not complained a bit about the hard work. She was an excellent cook and baker. She had the most prosperous gardens.

Deloris put her heart, soul, and backbone in each and every project.

She has passed on her knowledge and ethics to all of her children, her grandchildren, and all of her former students who were more than lucky to have had her... and many more who have crossed her path.

The family of Deloris Maurer would like to thank everyone for honoring her. The dedication of this book would have meant the world to her. It means the world to her family that others see her the way they do... a wonderful, witty, loving, helpful, inspirational woman with a heart of gold and a beautiful soul!

2022 Miss Clark County Fair Queen Carson Foley

WOW! Time flies when you're having fun, but what a year it has been representing Clark County as the 2022 Miss Clark County Fair Queen. I have truly loved every minute spent alongside my little sister and my bonus sister.

A year ago, today I would have not believed you if you told me I would be Miss Clark County. I have grown so much from this experience, and have been given many incredible opportunities. From the early morning getting ready during the state pageant, radio interviews, loads of fair food, and the opportunity to judge a pageant just to name a few. I have also been so blessed to be able to use my title to help advocate about agriculture and county fairs to so many. Although my time as Miss Clark County has come to an end, there are a few people I'd like to thank.

Director Whitney and Lindsay, thank you so much for giving this "farm kid" the opportunity to step out of her comfort zone, and try something new. Although we've only known each other for a few years, you both have impacted my life more than you'll ever know.

To my Junior Miss Carly and Little Raegan, thank you both for being the best little queens. We've shared many laughs together, and I wouldn't trade the memories that we've made for anything.

To my parents, that not only had one queen, but had TWO queens in our house THANK

YOU! From being alongside at livestock shows, to being behind the camera at queen events, you both are the most amazing people. Carly and I truly have the best parents, and without them, dreams like this one wouldn't even be possible.

To the Clark County Fair Board, thank you for putting up with my "crazy ideas" that I have for upcoming fairs. You all have once again opened your hearts and arms to three new queens, and after becoming queen I have seen the behind the scenes work on making a fair run. And I wanted you to know that your hard work does go unnoticed.

Finally, to the 2023 Miss CLARK COUNTY FAIR MARSHALL, IL Clark County Fair Queen, buckle up because this is going to be the fastest and best year of your life. Many opportunities are headed your way, and I cannot wait to see all the amazing things that you will accomplish.

Cherish every moment spent with your little queens, and remember to take lots and lots of pictures!

Once again thank you to everyone that has made this past year one to remember as the 2022 Miss Clark County Fair Queen!

Your 2022 Miss Clark County Fair Queen,
Carson Foley

2022 Junior Miss Clark County Miss Carly Foley

Wow! Has this year gone by fast or what? It feels like yesterday that I was crowned the 2022 Junor Miss Clark County Queen.

I've had so much fun being the Junior Miss. it has enhanced my public speaking skills tremendously. I have met so many wonderful people along the way.

I would like to thank the Clark County Fair Board for all of their support. They have been so kind to my family and me. I would also like to thank my family and friends for supporting me through this journey.

I have learned so many skills that will follow me throughout the rest of my life. I appreciate everything that everyone has done.

2022 Little Miss Clark County Miss Raegan Scott

Hello, I am your 2022 Little Miss Clark County! I have loved every minute of my reign this year. I couldn't think of better Queen sisters to share my experience with than Carson and Carly Foley. They have been the best to spend time with. I really look up to them.

I want to thank them for this past year and for everything they have done. They rode rides with me, hung out in between parades, and we had some fun photoshoots!

I also want to give a huge thanks to my mom for always being willing to do my hair before events, helping me get ready by picking the perfect outfit, and always giving me rides to different places.

I have enjoyed this past year so much and am proud to represent Clark County this way! I couldn't have done all of the fun things without the support of my family all around me. I really do love them so much.

I also want to thank Director Whitney and Lindsay for all of the hard work they put into making every minute special for me.

To the next Little Miss, take it all in and enjoy it! The year will fly by before you know it. So, take time to thank your family and wear the crown with a smile! Good luck and farewell!
